TEMPE, Ariz.

Matt Diaz hit a two-run home run in the second inning and pitcher Wes Crawford held off Arizona State as the Seminoles won 6-1 before 3,719 fans at Packard Stadium on Saturday.

It was the second straight victory over No. 6 Arizona (8-2) for Florida State (3-2). The final game of the series is at 3 p.m. today before the Seminoles take their West Coast road trip to Hawaii.

Crawford (1-0), a left-hander, allowed one run on four hits through six-plus innings. He struck out four.

Crawford was relieved by John Bentley after allowing a leadoff hit in the seventh. Bentley earned his first save of the season.

The Seminoles went ahead 2-0 in the second inning when Matt Woodward singled with two out and Diaz followed with a home run — his first hit of the season.

Arizona State trimmed the lead to 2-1 in the fourth inning on a bases-loaded single by Jeff Phelps.

FSU added two runs in the fourth on RBI singles by Kevin Cash and Brian Cox, driving in Brooks Badeaux and Jose Zabala. The Seminoles went up 6-1 in the ninth when Terry Henderson scored on a wild pitch and Brett Groves scored on a hit by Zabala. Both had walked.

The Seminoles' 12 hits were their most this season.
