Brett Groves' two-run double in the eighth inning Sunday gave Florida State a 9-6 victory over Wake Forest and a three-game sweep of the weekend series with the Demon Deacons.

The Seminoles (20-7, 4-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) scored four runs in the eighth to take an 8-6 lead. Jeremy Salazar and Brian Cox led off the inning with infield hits, and Karl Jernigan's line drive single to right scored Salazar. Groves followed with his double and later scored on Jose Zabala's bunt single.

Left-hander Zach Diaz pitched 4 1/3 innings of relief to pick up the win. Diaz (3-0) relieved starter Chris Chavez, who gave up six runs on eight hits in 4 2/3 innings. Chavez struck out five and walked three.

Designated hitter Terry Henderson extended his hitting streak to eight games with a two-run triple to tie the score 3-3 in the fifth inning. Henderson scored on a single by Salazar, who was 4-for-5 with a solo home run for FSU.

Florida State has won nine straight games.
