

DEMOCRAT STAFF REPORT
CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

Tar Heels centerfielder Jarrett Shearin drove in four runs on three hits as he led North Carolina (23-13, 7-5 ACC) to a 6-5 win over No. 12 Florida State (31-12, 9-2 ACC) at Boshamer Stadium in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Right-hander Derrick DePriest (4-1) allowed just one run on one hit and struck out two batters in four innings of relief to earn the win for North Carolina.

Left-hander Chris Ginn gave up one run on one hit in one inning in relief as he took the loss for the Seminoles. Right-hander Jon McDonald gave up five runs on 11 hits and struck out six batters in a no-decision for FSU.

North Carolina took a 6-5 lead in the bottom of the eighth inning as rightfielder Richie Grimsley doubled and scored on a wild pitch by reliever Zach Diaz.

In the first inning, third baseman Jose Zabala walked and scored on the front end of a double steal attempt, but centerfielder Brian Cox was caught stealing to end the inning for the Seminoles.

The Tar Heels quickly tied it up at 1-1 as they ripped four consecutive hits of McDonald. Shearin singled, stole second base and advanced to third on a throwing error. Shearin then tied the score on a base-hit by designated hitter Chris LaMarsh.

Second baseman Brooks Badeaux walked and scored on a single by catcher Jeremy Salazar as the Seminoles took a 2-1 lead in the third inning. The Tar Heels tied the score at 2-2 in the bottom of the third.

Seminole designated hitter Kevin Cash belted a solo home run in the top of the fourth inning giving FSU a 3-2 advantage, but the Tar Heels quickly took a 4-3 lead on a two-run single by Shearin in the bottom of the inning.

Salazar walked and scored on a sacrifice fly by leftfielder Karl Jernigan in the sixth inning as the Seminoles tied the game at 4-4.

Shearin and Cash traded solo home runs in the seventh and eighth innings to make the score 5-5.

Left-hander Mike Bynum surrendered four runs on three hits in five innings of a no-decision. Bynum fanned five batters and walked six in the outing.
