COACHES QUOTES

Florida State Head Coach Bobby Bowden

"I have to give Toledo a lot of credit. They came down here and we had every advantage. They didn't have a single one. Our defense did as good a job as I had hoped. If I would have predicted the game, I would have thought we would have scored more points and they would have scored some points.

We have to correct our mistakes if we hope to be able to play with Nebraska. I think we had more mistakes tonight than we had in our first game last year against Tulane. Our kickoffs could have gotten us beat and our field goals could have gotten us ~~XXXXXX~~ beat.

We used a lot of players. I don't know if that will help us ~~win~~ or hurt us. We used six running backs and that's an awful lot. Our intensity was there all night but our execution was awful."

Toledo Head Coach Dan Simrell

"They performed well (Toledo). They (FSU) came out in the second half and were going to roll over us and I don't think they did that. Tim Inglis had to do the long snapping, Paul Krumm played his first game. We just did a super job in the kicking game. That's the thing we knew we had to be good at.

We moved the ball in spurts and stopped ourselves. I'm pleased with the performance ~~XXXX~~ of the wide receivers and the people up front. I think we did some things real well but we had a mistake here and there. We knew the people we went against, I said that going in. They're a national team. I don't like losing 24-0 but I'll tell you what--they scored over 50 points against South Carolina. I guess people know who Toledo is now. I'm proud of the kids."
