SERIES INFORMATION

Over the years, Auburn has had the upper hand in this series, by a 123-1 margin... however, Florida State has won the past two contests, including last year's meeting in New Orleans in the Sugar Bowl... FSU's two first round draft choices, Semmie Smith and Delton Sanders, played crucial roles in that victory... Smith became the first back in 25 games to earn over 100 yards on Auburn's defense while Sanders intercepted a pass in the end zone as the game ended to preserve FSU's 13-7 victory... the 1989 game will be the fifth meeting in Tallahassee where Auburn holds a 3-1 edge on the Seminoles... the last game in the series played in Doak Campbell was a zany 42-41 decision for the Tigers... in that contest, Auburn scored 13 points in the final quarter and FSU's missed two-point conversion try was the difference... Auburn linbacker coach Reggie Herring was a starting LB on FSU's 1978 and 80 Orange Bowl teams and ranks second on the Seminoles career tackle list... FSU has three Alabama natives on its coaching staff, including Bowden.

QUOTES -- FSU vs. AUBURN

FLORIDA STATE HEAD COACH BOBBY BOWDEN : "This ball game was just like the Sugar Bowl. I can't believe how close the two games were. You think you're going to blow them out, and they- come back. Pat Dye has a great knack for that. They do a great job of coaching defensive football. When you play a defensive team, you had better out-play them in every area. We are very happy with this win.

"We knew coming in that playing somebody like Auburn, our defense would be the key. They (the defense) just played great. Our offense played well, They died in the second half, but most of that was me trying not to do something stupid. We do better when I get stupid. And boy were we conservative! Just call me 'Chicken Bowden'. We tried to throw the ball a little bit and we threw interceptions. I felt like that was the only way to get us beat.

"Amp Lee must have played great. He had some big plays and anytime you get over 100 hundred yards against a team like Auburn, you've had a great nigh-t.

"Reggie Slack did such a great job -- scrambling, throwing,--he kept them in the game."
