

PINE MOUNTAIN, Ga.— Florida State's cross country team placed fourth in the annual Callaway Gardens Invitational here Saturday.

The Seminole runners, who finished with a total of 94 points, were led by Marcus Williamson, who placed sixth with a time of 20 minutes, two seconds.

The University of Tennessee freshmen took top honors with 66 points. Following Tennessee's Frosh were Knoxville Track Club (80), Auburn (86), FSU, and Pensacola Track Club (112).

FSU's next meet will be next Saturday in Auburn, Ala.