

FSU Runners Sixth in Meet

Florida State's Ken Misner scored a victory in the Callaway Gardens Invitational cross-country meet Saturday, but the Seminoles only managed sixth place.

Tennessee won the meet, composed of 23 teams. Misner finished the six mile course in 29 minutes and 59 seconds.

Vols Take Invitational C-C Crown

PINE MOUNTAIN, Ga., Oct. 19 (Special)—Tennessee's balanced cross-country team won the annual Calloway Gardens Invitational meet here Saturday, but Ken Misner of Florida State took individual honors.

Misner had a record 29:56.4 for the six-mile grind. Vol Ken Rowlett (30:01) ran second.

Team scores:

Tennessee No. 1, 43; Georgia Tech, 90; Florida Junior College, 108; Florida Track Club, 159; Auburn, 163; Florida State, 172; Pensacola Junior College, 173; Alabama, 212; South Florida, 215; Brevard, 220; Georgia, 250; Tennessee No. 2, 279; Atlanta Track Club, 313; South Alabama, 343; Georgia Southwestern, 402; Berry College, 454.

U-T's Owen Self was fourth while teammates Dickie Klier and Gordon Wilson finished 11th and 12th, respectively. Bill Villeneuve, another U-T entry, was 42nd. Tennessee's No. 2 team was led by Bob Halliburton.

The Vols will run in the NCAA Region 3 meet next Saturday at Atlanta.

Saturday's top individual finishers:

1. Ken Misner, Fla. State, 29:56.4; 2. Ken Rowlett, Tenn. No. 1, 30:01; 3. Bob Gray, Brevard, 30:14; 4. Owen Self, Tenn. No. 1, 30:19; 5. Angelo Harris, Alabama, 30:37; 6. Bruce LaBudda, Atlanta Track Club, 30:46; 7. Rick Tacques, Pensacola JC, 30:53; 8. Vic Kelley, Auburn, 30:56; 9. John Walters, Ga. Tech, 30:58; 10. John Wolfe, Georgia, 30:59.