Seminole Golf Squad Honored

Seven members of the Florida State University golf squad were honored at a banquet given by Coach Gus Burleson Wednesday night.

The FSU mentor awarded sweaters and letters during the affair to Capt Eddie Andrews, Sonny Tinney, Hank Mercer, Bill Rice, Walt Wells, Ralph Cowart and Jack Campbell.

During the season just completed the Seminoles chalked up three wins against seven defeats in a season which saw them recover from a shaky start to sweep their last two matches.

Tinney Low Medalist

Tinney, Florida Intercollegiate golf champion, led the squad with a low medal average for the season of 75, but yielded scoring honors to Capt Andrews who garnered 17 points in match play.

Tinney and Mercer took runner-up honors in scoring to Andrews with 13½ points apiece.

During the season, and last record the Seminoles piled up 88 points against their opponents' 108 for the campaign.

The lettermen also honored Burleson by presenting him with several gifts of wearing apparel in appreciation of his work during the year.
