

FSU Golfers Down Emory

Florida State University's golf team won its fourth match in seven here yesterday afternoon, downing Emory University 17-13 on the Country club course.

The Seminoles' next match has been scheduled here Saturday against the Stetson University Hatters.

Florida State's Dick Montney paced the medal scores in yesterday's match with a two under par 70. Montney went on to trounce Emory's Sid Beach 3-0.

The victory gives Coach Boh Harblson's Florida State golfers a record of four wins, two losses, and one tie.
