DELAND — Paced by veteran stars Robert "Sonny" Tinney and Jimmy James, Florida State University's Seminoles won their second straight golf match in an invasion of central Florida, beating Stetson's Hatters 12-6 Saturday over the College Arms course which is the site of the State College tourney March 20-22.

Tinney fired a 78 to defeat Hatter star Chuck Rea, 2½-½, while James unfurled a sizzling 70 to blank John Nichol, 3-0. Rea had a 76 against Tinney, while Nichol fired a 75 against James' 70.

Grace Lenczyk, former U. S. women's amateur champion who took over a berth on the Stetson squad when "Spike" Israel joined the Navy, gave the Hatters one of their wins by beating football star Tommy Brown, 2-1. Miss Lenczyk had a 76. Brown an 80.

Dick Johnson, who has been hampered by an ankle injury, celebrated his return to the Hatter lineup by beating Tom Cumble, 2-1. Johnson had the day's best round for Stetson, a 72. Cumble checked in with a 75.

In team play Tinney and James paired to beat Rea and Nichol, 3-0, and Brown and Cumble earned an even break with Miss Lenczyk and Johnson, 1½-1½.
