

Florida State University came up with a pair of sub-par performances to rout Southwestern of Memphis, 18-3, in a fast golf match at the Tallahassee Country Club yesterday.

It was the eighth dual win in nine outings for Coach Don Vetter's Seminoles, who oppose Georgia Tech in Athens Wednesday in a tune-up match for the three-day Southern Intercollegiate tournament opening in Athens Thursday.

Jimmy James, FSU's reliable senior from Miami, was the medalist yesterday, carding a four-under-par 68. Mel Fleischer had a 71 for FSU.

The summary:
Berry and James df. McLean and Frank Cauthon, 6¹/₂-2¹/₂.
Vernon Edgar and Jack Voghte, 2 FSU, df. Jim Ders and Lewis Bledsoe, SW, 9-0; Fleischer df. Jim Napier, 2¹/₂-1¹/₂.
