

FSU Golfers Meet Georgia

With the pressures of an undefeated streak gone, Florida State's golfers hoped to get back into the win column today when they teed off against the Georgia Bulldogs at Tallahassee Country Club.

For the second straight year, Coach Don Veler's linksters found Georgia Tech too rough yesterday. The Yellow Jackets strung together three birdies in a row on No. 9 to halt FSU's four-match victory skein, 15½-11½.

John Maddox (78) and Gabe Hill (74), Tech, def. Wright (78) and Morris (80), FSU, 7½-1½; George Johnson (73) and Ned Edge (71), Tech, def. Jack Veghte (75) and Bunk Berry (72), FSU, 6-3; Dick Huff (73) and Bobby Dunn (72), FSU, def. Carter Terrell (74) and Lynwood Johnson (70), Tech, 7-7.
