

THOMASVILLE, Ga. — An 80-foot chip shot rammed in the cup for Louisiana State's Jack O'Neal on the 18th hole and the Tigers defeated FSU 13½-13½ tie with Florida State here yesterday.

O'Neal's eagle on the par 5 18th at Glen Arven CC earned LSU 2½ points in the dual match. It was the second straight tie between the teams, who fought to a 13½-13½ deadlock at Baton Rouge last year.

Sam Carmichael of LSU shot a three-under-par 69 and Dickie Dunlap paced FSU with a 71. FSU meets Navy at Jacksonville tomorrow.

Don Esig (80) and Sam Carmichael (69), LSU, def. Dawkins Gray (77) and Phil Fagan (75), 2-3.

Dickie Dunlap (71) and Wayne Timberman (74), FSU, def. Howell Fraser (76) and Jack O'Neal (73), 5½-3½.

Dave Omstad (74) and Rock Fraleigh (78), FSU, def. Sam Love (74) and Jack Rivers (76), 5-4.
