

Florida State's golf team hoped to keep a good thing going in a double dual match against visiting Vanderbilt and Auburn squads here today.

The Seminoles picked up a pair of triumphs yesterday in a similar arrangement against Georgia Tech and Vandy. FSU trimmed Georgia Tech, 15-12, and Vanderbilt, 26-1. Tech broke even by outdoing Vanderbilt. FSU's freshmen tripped Tech's frosh, 15½-2½.

Bryan Bergeron paced the Tribe with a two-under-par 70 at Capital City Country Club. Tech's Dallis Copeland fired the best round, a 68.

Downing Gray (71) and Dave Onstad (74), FSU, def. Dick Sturhahn (76) and Don Coker (78), GT, 8-1; Dallis Copeland (68) and Bill Fleege (71), GT, def. Frank Malara (8) and Bryan Bergeron (78), FSU, 5½-3½; Lefty Ewing (75) and Buddy Baker (72), GT, def. Dick Dunlap (74) and Rock Fraleigh (74), FSU, 5½-3½.

Gray-Onstad, FSU, def. George Crough (76) and Art Malone (78), V, 8-1; Malara-Bergeron, FSU, def. Bill Oakley (85) and Jim Sexton (77), V, 9-0; Dunlap-Fraleigh (76), FSU, def. Dick Sturhahn (76) and Gary Hudson (81), V, 9-0.

Dave Lee (78) and Jim Hill (75), FSUF, def. Robbie Horak (76) and Harold Miller (75), GTF, 6½-2½; Dave Stiney (79) and Pete Tennis (75), FSUF, def. Bud Haslam (85) and Jim Wrinkle (80), GTF, 9-0.