

MADISON — Bryan Bergeron, Florida State golfer, followed his low Saturday round with a 70 yesterday and won the second annual Pot Williams Invitational golf tournament.

Bergeron fired a 67 Saturday to cop medalist honors in the first round of the 36-holes meet.

He was the second FSU golfer to win the top prize here. Downing Gray won last year's tourney.

In second place was Jack Rountree of Lake City, who finished two strokes back of the leader with a 139. Rountree, in a tie for second with a 68 after the first round, fired a 71 yesterday.

Frank Eldredge and Jack Rosemand, both of Valdosta had 140s. Eldredge's score was 70-70. Rosemand's was 68-72.

FSU's Dick Dunlap finished with a 69-74—143. Rock and Jack Fraleigh, local brothers who are members of the Seminoles' golf team, ended with 144s. Rock had a 70 the first day, 74 the second. Jack shot 72s both days.
