

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) —Kermit Zarley and his Houston teammates continued their dominant roles going into today's 36-hole finals of the Southern Intercollegiate golf tournament.

Zarley fired a 71 and increased his lead to two strokes with a 36-hole total of 139.

Georgia, however, making a huge runaway of the concurrent Southeastern Conference team competition, barged into second place in the overall reckoning with a team total of 580 compared to Houston's leading 5757.

Still in a good spot for a shot at the title at 143 were Peter Green of North Carolina (74-69), Bryan Bergeron of Florida State (73-70), Jerry Potter of Miami (73-70), Bill Graham of Murray State (70-70) and Jimmy Gabrielson of Georgia (71-72).

Florida State was third behind Houston and Georgia in the team race with a 590 aggregate, followed by Auburn and Florida, the SEC runnersup, with 595.

Other FSU scores: Keating 71, Philo 73, Kennedy 75, Davis 74, Hill 81.

FSU's Bill Odeneal won second place in the coaches portion of the tourney.

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Houston's Homero Blancas charged from seven strokes behind with scores of 69 and 70 here yesterday and won the Southern Intercollegiate golf championship with a 285 total.

It marked the second straight year Houston has swept both individual and team trophies. Georgia's David Boyd and Houston's Wright Garrett tied for second at 287.

Houston's winning score was 1,154, 16 strokes better than that of second place Georgia.

Behind Houston and Georgia in team competition were Florida State 1,195; Auburn 1,199; Miami 1,202; Louisiana State, 1,203; Georgia Tech 1,215; Kentucky 1,215; and Florida 1,219.

FSU individual scores: Bryan Bergeron, 73-70-74-73—290; Dave Philo 75-73-71-72—291; Chuck Keating 76-71-76-75—298.
