SPRING SPORTS

TALIAHASSEE: Mar. __-- The Florida State tennis team will dominate the spring sports spotlight this week with two big matches.

Coach Lex Woods' tennis players, who beat Florida 7-2 last Saturday, will host a strong Southwestern College of Memphis, Tenn., Thursday, and play Rollins College Saturday, March 12.

"I was pleased with our team performance against Florida," said Wood. "It is always hard to choose an outstanding performance when you win, but sophomore Russ Langstroth was simply tremendous."

The Coral Gables sophomore played almost flawless tennis, shutting out an opponent who had beaten him in high school. He continued his fine game in third doubles with Stew Bruner as the FSU pair won the deciding match.

"Our two tennis opponents this week are good teams," Wood said. "Southwestern is always a tennis power, while Rollins beat Florida earlier this year."

TALIAHASSEE. Mar. __-- The Florida State golf team won three of four home matches last weekend, but the big one got away as the Seminoles had to rally to tie Florida 12-12.

The Seminoles, led by seniors Dennis Iyons and Bill Boutwell, and soph Carl DiCesare, have been playing well all season. FSU downed Alabama 15-9, Auburn 21 $\frac{1}{2}$ -2 $\frac{1}{2}$ , and Ball State 14-4.

Golf Coach Hugh Durham has announced the addition to the FSU golf schedule of Springfield (Mass.) College on March 19 and Wofford (S.C.) College on April 5.
