Florida Golfers Take Title

WINTER PARK, Fla. — (AP) — Sweeping the tournament's top four individual honors, the University of Florida golf team captured its sixth straight Florida Intercollegiate golf championship Saturday.

The six-man Gator squad finished with a 35 under par 1,117 in four rounds over the Willow Brook course, the score computed on each team's best four individual scores in each of the tournament's four rounds.

Florida State finished a distant second in the 16-team field with 1,158 strokes,

GATOR Phil Hancock won medalist honors with a nine-under par 279. He was trailed by teammates Kevin Morris, 280; Gary Koch, 282; and Ben Duncan, 286.

Florida International's Jamie Frith finished fifth with a 288 and three Florida State golfers, Todd Crandall, Bob Impaglia and Kim Heisler, carded 289.

Behind Florida and Florida State, team finishes were: Rollins, 1,161; Florida Atlantic, 1,175; Florida Southern, 1,176; Florida International, 1,178; Miami, 1,181; South Florida, 1,186; Jacksonville, 1,192; Tampa, 1,252; St. Leo, 1,253; Biscayne, 1,276; Embry Riddle, 1,279; Flagler, 1,322; and Stetson, 1,347.
