Knox still alive for Cypress title

Special to the Democrat

CYPRESS GARDENS — While Florida State's golf team struggled in the depths of a strong field Saturday, Kenny Knox kept hopes alive for an individual title in the Cypress Gardens Invitational at Grenelefe Country Club.

Knox shot an even-par 72 to move his two-day total to 147, just five shots below leaders Gary Trivansano of Alabama and Mike Donald of Georgia Southern. Knox overcame putting problems to move from 12th to 6th in the field with the final day of play today.
