

FSU golfers in third place

Columbus, Ga. — FSU's golf team held third place, eight strokes behind the lead, after the first round Friday of the Dixie Intercollegiate Tournament.

The Seminoles had a score of 293 and trailed Auburn (285) and the University of Tennessee (292). Georgia was one stroke behind FSU.

The Seminoles had balanced scoring from its players: Paul Downes, Marcus Beck and Mark Sorel shot 73s. Mike Grant had a 74 and Grant Turner shot 75.

The three-day tournament attracted teams from eight southern schools to the Bull Creek Country Club. It is the last tournament of the fall season for the Seminoles.

Seminole men golfers finish third

COLUMBUS, Ga. — The Florida State men's golf team finished third Sunday in the Dixie Intercollegiate Golf Tournament at the Bull Creek Country Club.

FSU shot a total of 889, to finish behind Auburn (876) and Georgia Tech (883). A total of 25 teams competed in the three-day tournament.

Paul Downes and Mark Sorel, each with 220, turned in the top scores for the Seminoles to finish tied for 10th individually. Ricky Smallridge of Auburn had the best score, 209.

Mike Grant shot 225, Marcus Beck, 227 and Grant Turner, 228 for FSU.

Sorel competed in his first collegiate tournament. He was a substitute for Jeff Sluman, who has mononucleosis.

Seminole golfers second in Dixie

COLUMBUS, Ga. — Florida State's golf team moved into second place with one round to play in the Dixie Intercollegiate Invitational here Saturday.

The Seminoles' 591 total trails Georgia by one stroke, with Auburn also in the race, just one shot behind Florida State. There are 25 teams in the tournament.

Mark Sorel, a senior who has never before competed in a tournament for Florida State, leads FSU with a 73-73—146 total, good for fifth place overall. Other FSU golfers are Paul Downs (73-75—148), Mike Grant (74-75—149), Grant Turner (75-75—150) and Marcus Beck (73-78—151).