

FSU golfers in seventh place

MONTGOMERY — The Florida State men's golf team shot a 297 Friday in the first round of the Southeastern Collegiate Invitational.

That total placed FSU in a tie for seventh place with Memphis State and North Carolina in the tournament that ends Sunday.

Alabama, with an even-par 288 total, is leading the tournament, followed by Mississippi State (289) and Wake Forest (291).

Mississippi State's David Allen, who shot a three-under-par 69, is the individual leader. FSU was led by Paul Azinger's 73. Teammate David Boeff shot a 74, with Steve Keppler and Mike Grant carding 75s.

FSU has won three of the last four tournaments it has entered.

FSU men third in golf tourney

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — The Florida State men's golf team shot a three-over-par 291 Saturday to move into a tie for third place after the second round of the 24-team Southern Collegiate Invitational.

The Seminoles are tied with Wake Forest at 588. Alabama leads with a 574 and Mississippi State is second at 584. Memphis State is fifth (590), followed by Georgia (593) and Clemson (594).

David Allen of Mississippi State is the individual leader at 139. FSU's Paul Azinger shot a two-under-par 70 to give him a 143 total. Teammate Mike Grant has a 147, while Dave Boeff is at 149, Grant Turner 150 and Steve Keppler 151.

FSU golfers finish second

Special to The Democrat

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Florida State finished second Sunday in the Southern Collegiate Invitational golf tournament.

The Seminoles had a team score of 879, two strokes behind first-place Alabama.

FSU shot a three-over-par 291 Sunday to challenge for the title. Wake Forest was third at 885, while Memphis State was fourth at 886. Mississippi State, Georgia and Clemson tied for fifth at 889.

The Seminoles' Paul Azinger had a 73-70-72—215 total to finish third in the individual scoring. Azinger was one-under-par for the tournament. FSU's Mike Brant was seventh at 75-72-70—217.

Also for FSU, Steve Keppler finished at 75-76-73—224, Grant Turner had a 76-74-76—226 and Dave Boeff shot a 74-75-79—228.

The Seminoles have played well this season, winning three tournaments, finishing second twice and fourth once.