

FSU golfers ninth at Schenkel

STATESBORO, Ga. — The Florida State men's golf team shot a 306 Friday to tie Murray State for ninth place after one round of the Chris Schenkel Invitational.

Wake Forest fired a 286, led by Tim Planchin's four-under-par 68 in gusty winds, to take the team and individual lead.

Only 13 players in the field of 111 managed to shoot par or better on the 6,860-yard, par 72 Forest Heights Country Club course.

Florida, with a 294 total, is second in the 22-team field.

Seminoles drop to 10th place

STATESBORO, Ga. — Florida State's men's golf team slipped into a tie for 10th place Saturday after two rounds of the Chris Schenkel Intercollegiate Invitational at Forest Heights Country Club.

FSU has a team total of 596, 20 strokes behind leader Florida, entering today's final round. For FSU, Grant Turner moved to 13th overall with a 74 for a two-round total of 145. Other FSU scores were Paul Azinger, 73-149; Steve Keppler, 74-152; Paul Downes, 72-153, and Mike Grant, 77-155.

John Salamone of Louisiana State surged into the individual lead with a four-under-par 68 for a 138 total.

Florida holds a three-stroke edge over first-day leader Wake Forest and defending NCAA champion Oklahoma State.

FSU golfers finish ninth

STATESBORO, Ga. — Florida State finished ninth, and Oklahoma State overtook Florida for took its second straight title Sunday in the 11th annual Chris Schenkel Intercollegiate Invitational golf tournament at Forest Heights Country Club.

Oklahoma State had a team total of 282 for the final round and finished with an 861 total.

Wake Forest was second at 870 and second-day leader Florida finished third at 872. Florida State had a 293 in the final round and finished with a total of 889.

Oklahoma State's Bob Tway shot a final-round 65 to earn medalist honors with a 207 total. For FSU, Grant Turner was low with a 75 for a 220 total. Other scores were Steve Keppler, 70-222; Paul Azinger, 74-223; Paul Downes, 74-227; and Mike Grant, 78-233.