

Seminole golfers in fifth place

COLUMBUS, Ga. — Braving cool temperatures and 35-mph winds, the Florida State men's golf squad is currently in fifth place at 308 after the first round of the Dixie Intercollegiate Invitational Friday.

Leading the tournament, being played at Bull Creek Country Club, is Georgia Southern at 297. Georgia is second at 300 and Mississippi and Auburn are tied at 304. Tennessee is sixth at 313, then Memphis State at 320 and Miami at 321.

Mike Keymont shot a 76 to lead all Seminoles. Paul Downes and Keith Kulzer are both at 77, Dave Boeff is at 78 and Jonathan Morrow has an 83.

Wright Waddell of Georgia shot a 70 to lead all individuals. John Fisher of Auburn is second at 71 and Jody Mudd of Georgia Southern and Mike Diamond of Miami are tied at 72.

FSU golfers slide to sixth place

COLUMBUS, Ga. — Florida State slipped one place Sunday and finished sixth with a three-day score of 913 in the Dixie Intercollegiate Golf Invitational at Bull Creek Country Club.

The tournament, which finished under nearly the same icy temperatures that forced a two-hour delay in play Saturday, was won by Georgia with an 886. Mississippi and Tennessee were tied eight strokes back at 895, followed by Auburn at 898 and Georgia Southern at 902. Miami finished seventh at 920.

Wright Waddell of Georgia won the individual competition with a two-under par 214. Jody Mudd of Georgia Southern was second at 218.

FSU, fifth after the first two rounds, was paced by Paul Downes who shot a 78 Sunday to finish 12 strokes back of Waddell at 226. FSU's Keith Kulzer finished at 229, Dave Boeff at 233, and Jonathan Morrow and Mike Keymont at 236.

FSU is off until February, when Veller and his squad travel to Monterrey, Mexico to resume action.

Florida State golfers hold on to fifth place
