

From the Tallahassee Democrat

November 6, 1982

Page 25

FSU golfers first after a round

COLUMBUS, Ga. — The Florida State men's golf team is in first place after one round of the 26-team Dixie Intercollegiate tournament at the Bull Creek golf course.

FSU, which finished ninth two weeks ago in the Jim Corbett Invitational, shot a 3-under-par 285 Friday, to take a one-stroke lead over Alabama.

FSU's Greg Fleischer is in third place individually after shooting a three-under-par 69, and teammate Keith Kulzer is tied for fifth with a 70.

Auburn's Carter Mize leads the tournament with a five-under-par 67, followed by Columbus College's Mike Walton, who shot a 68.

The tournament ends Sunday.

From the Tallahassee Democrat

November 8, 1982

Page 9, other edition

FSU golfers second

COLUMBUS, Ga. — Florida State finished second Sunday in the Dixie Intercollegiate golf tournament. The Seminoles, who led for the first two rounds, finished with an 861 total.

FSU's top scorers were Greg Fleisher, 71-214; Steve Keppler, 70-215; Brian Kamm, 73-216 and Keith Colzer, 73-216.

Auburn's Steve Lowery was the top individual scorer with a 209 total.

Alabama won the team title with an 859 total.