

FSU's Kamm shoots 152 in NCAA golf championship

HOUSTON — Brian Kamm of FSU shot a 152 through the first two rounds of the NCAA Division I Golf Championships, 15 strokes off the lead.

Defending national champion Oklahoma State, with a pair of sub-par 69s by Tommy Moore and Jeff Maggert, fired an 8-under par team score of 280 Thursday to charge into the second round lead of the 87th NCAA Division I Golf Championships Thursday.

North Carolina's John Inman remained the individual leader with a 133 total among the early finishers after shooting a 5-under-par 67.