

May 15, 1987

Page 10, other edition

FSU leads golf tourney

HILTON HEAD, S.C. — Florida State, which has won 10 straight Metro Conference Golf titles, started work on another one on Thursday.

Seminole golfers combined to shoot 301 after the first round at the Wexford Golf Club. FSU's Tom Krystyn tied three other golfers for individual honors by shooting a 73, while teammate Nolan Henke shot a 74.

South Carolina was second at 306, followed by Southern Mississippi (307), Memphis State (310), Louisville (314), Cincinnati (324) and Virginia Tech (324).

The 54-hole tournament concludes Saturday.

May 16, 1987

Page 26

Henke trails by three in Metro; FSU leads

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. — Gary March of Southern Mississippi shot a 5-under-par 68 Friday to take a 3-stroke lead after two rounds of the Metro Conference golf tournament.

March has a two-day total of 141 to lead Nolan Henke of Florida State going into the final day of the 54-hole tournament at Wexford Plantation in Hilton Head.

Henke had a 70 on the par-73 Wexford Golf Club course. Tom Krystyn is four strokes back at 145 after a 72 on Friday.

Glen Hnatiuk of Southern Miss is tied with Billy Lewis of at 146. Hnatiuk had a second-round 73, while Lewis had a 76.

Florida State leads the team title chase at 589, followed by Southern Mississippi at 596. Memphis State is third at 602, followed by South Carolina at 609, Louisville at 612, Virginia Tech at 638 and Cincinnati at 640.

May 17, 1987

Page 61

Henke, FSU win Metro golf

Democrat staff and wire reports

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. — Nolan Henke of Florida State fired a 4-under par 69 Saturday to win the Metro Conference golf championship and lift the Seminoles to the team title.

Henke finished with a 6-under-par 213 on the par-73 Wexford Golf Club course to beat teammate Tom Krystyn by 2 strokes. Krystyn had a final-round 70 to finish at 215.

FSU's Henke, Krystyn and Robert Maxfield all made all-conference.

Coach Verlyn Giles said of his team: "I knew they were good, but I was overwhelmed by their play today. I just hope they can hold on to that between now and nationals."

Gary March of Southern Mississippi, who led Henke by 3 strokes after two rounds, had a 75 Saturday and finished third at 216.

March's teammate, Glen Hnatiuk, had a final-round 71 to finish fourth with a 217 total.

Maxfield finished fifth at 218 after a 69 on Saturday.

The Seminoles won the team title with a score of 866, easily defeating Southern Mississippi. The Golden Eagles had a 894 score.

Memphis State was third at 900, followed by South Carolina at 906, Louisville at 927, Virginia Tech at 952 and Cincinnati at 954.