

FSU golf

GAINESVILLE — The Florida State men's golf team started its spring season with an eighth-place finish after 36 holes on the first day of the Gator Invitational.

Florida is in first place after the two-round day with a 555 total, with Georgia second with 573. Florida State has a two-round total of 583.

Florida's Mark Baggarly leads with 136, shooting a 69-67. Leading the Seminoles are seniors Christian Raynor (69-73 for 142) and Ryan Perna (73-69 for 142). They are tied for 16th.