

FSU Tankmen Down Emory

Florida State University's swimming team won its sixth straight dual meet of the season here last night by downing Emory University 44-31.

The Seminole tankmen copped six of the nine first places and were never headed.

Swimming exhibition, but with regular meet rules, FSU's Dick Wells, Jack White, Pete Dunn-Rankin, and Walter Jardine teamed to break the 400-yard free style relay with a time of three minutes, 42 seconds. The new standard bettered both the school and pool marks by five seconds.

Coach Bim Stults' swim team will enter the Southeastern AAU meet Friday in Atlanta.

The individual results:

The individual results:

100-yard-medley relay: FSU (Ramsey, Archer (Dunn-Rankin). Time: 2:08.06.

200-yard free style: Blevins (E), Sutherland (FSU), Butler (FSU). Time: 2:19.

50-yard free style: Mills (FSU), Boone (FSU), Munroe (E). Time: 27.

Diving: Conway (FSU), 90.8 points; Farrell (FSU), 84.1; Jacques (E), 70.9.

100-yard free style: Burnett (FSU), Blevins (E), Munroe (E). Time: 59.2.

200-yard back stroke: Holmes (FSU), Cunningham (E), Asbury (E). Time: 2:27.5.

200-yard breast stroke: McDonough (E), Archer (FSU), Browning (FSU). Time: 2:35.04.

400-yard free style: Wilton Jardine (FSU), Blevins (E), Keyser (E). Time: 5:18.01.

400-yard free style relay: Emory (McDonough, Munroe, Hughston, Cunningham). Time: 4:12.04.