

Three FSU Swim Stars Enter NCAA

Florida State University swimming coach, Bim Stults, took two freshmen and a junior with him to the NCAA national meet at Princeton, N. J., today.

Florida State Co-Captain Dick Wells and Freshman John Baruch will each compete in the 50-yard free style event and freshman Dan Blackshear will enter the diving.

After competing at Princeton the Seminoles will go to New Haven, Conn. for the national AAU meet there April 3, 4 and 5.

FSU Swim Stars Are Eliminated

Special to The Democrat
PRINCETON, N. J.—None of Florida State University's entries in the NCAA swimming meet reached the finals in their events here last night.

Seminole Co-Captain Dick Wells and freshman John Baruch were finally eliminated in the 50-yard freestyle and freshman Dan Blackshear bowed out of the diving before the finals rolled around.
