

Winning first places in every event, Florida State's swimming team ripped to a 76-10 triumph over Emory University of Atlanta here Saturday afternoon.

Benton Waddell emerged as the only double winner, taking the 200 and 400-yard freestyles.

Two meet records fell as Jim Wentworth finished the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:25.5 and Joel Jacobs worked the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:34.4.

Emory was blanked in both the 400-yard medley and the 400-yard freestyle relays, with FSU picking up 14 points in these two events.

Best effort for the visitors came from Marvin Skolnik, a sophomore who finished second in the 200-yard butterfly and third in the 400-yard freestyle.
