

Red hot sophomores paced Florida State to an easy 65-23 swimming victory over Georgia here last night, breaking three meet records in the process.

Sophomores accounted for six of the Seminoles' nine first places in individual events. Georgia was able to win only one event—The 400-yard freestyle relay.

Mike Blouin set a new meet record in the 50-yard freestyle with a 50.6 time. Soph Scott Guthrie did likewise in the 200-yd. breaststroke, swimming the distance in 2:29.7.

Junior Gene Dayton, top FSU distance man, set a new meet record of 5:36.3 in the 500-yd. freestyle event.

Coach Bim Stufts used almost every man on his squad in the victory which opened his 16th year as Florida State swimming coach. Most FSU swimmers were entered in only one event, and many of the top men swam only in exhibition.

Led by a record-breaking performance by Michael Koch in the 100-yard breaststroke, Florida State's freshmen won a 65-29 preliminary meet with the Georgia yearlings.

Koch's time of 1:04.6 broke an

The Seminole tankers will barely have time to dry off before they're back in the pool again. Next home meet is against Georgia Tech tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in Montgomery Pool.
