NEW ORLEANS — A trio of freshmen led the Tulane swim team to a 69-44 victory over Florida State here Saturday, giving the Seminoles a split of a pair of weekend meets with Louisiana teams.

Friday night FSU defeated LSU 61-52.

Ben Goslin and Buzz Staggs won two events each and Craig McPherson was second in two to spark Tulane. All are freshmen.

The Seminoles won just four events—one each by Lawton Harrison, Jerry Stevens and Larry Shoeman and also the 400-yard freestyle relay.

The Seminoles are now 4-2 with the Vanderbilt Invitational next on their schedule next weekend.
