FSU Swimmers Begin Schedule Today

Florida State's swimming team opens its season here today against South Carolina. The first event is to start at 2 p.m.

This is the first of nine dual meets and three championship events, climaxed by the NCAA in March.

Commenting on the Gamecock swimmers, FSU Coach Bim Stults cited backstroker Casey Claflin, freshman freestyler Tom Schmidt and diver Gary Wetherhold as outstanding.

The Tribe's biggest hopes lie in returning seniors Jerry Stevens, Chet Miltenberger and Marc Middleton, junior John Hegert and freshmen Cliff Schlak and Larry Lovelace.

Stevens specializes in freestyle sprints. Miltenberger concentrates on the breaststroke event but is proficient in the freestyle and medley events as well. Middleton rates as the top individual medley swimmer. Hegert is expected to hold down the team's top spot in the backstroke event.

All four are former national qualifiers and appear to be headed for their best season.

Schlak is to swim the freestyle events and Lovelace the butterfly in their college debut.

The series between the two teams is 3-2 in favor of the Seminoles, who have lost the last two.

Season's schedule:

Dec. — South Carolina; Jan. 6 — North Carolina; Jan. 13 — at Florida; Jan. 19 — at L.S.U.; Jan. 20 — at Tulane; Jan. 26-27 — Vanderbilt Championships; Feb. 3 — at Georgia; Feb. 10 — Florida; Feb. 15-17 — Southern Invitational Championships at Athens, Ga.; Feb. 23 — Miami; Feb. 24 — South Florida; Mar. 3 — Southern Independent Championships; Mar. 28-30 — NCAA Championships at Knoxville, Tenn.; Apr. 12-14 — National AAU Championships at Cincinnati.
