

FSU men win in swim

Steve Albretton qualified for the NCAA national swim meet in his first event of the season, sparking Florida State to a 66-47 win over Daytona Beach Friday. Albritton was a double winner in the 50 and 500-meter freestyles.

The Seminoles' next meet is a big one Dec. 3 at Duke.

400-medley relay — 1. FSU (McConnell, Marshburn, McLaughlin, Crisley) 3:36.7, 2. FSU; 1000-freestyle — 1. Dave Shaffer (FSU) 10:04.30, 2. Anderson (DB), 3. Gollahschok (FSU); 200-freestyle — 1. Bob Ring (FSU) 1:47.7, 2. Johnson (DB), 3. Carnali (DB); 50-freestyle — 1. Steve Albritton (FSU) 20.80, 2. Baker (DB), 3. Ennson (FSU); 200-individual medley — 1. Mike Hartung (FSU) 2:03.4, 2. Maher (DB), 3. McLaughlin (FSU); 200-butterfly — 1. Maher (DB) 2:01.3, 2. McLaughlin (FSU), 3. McConnell (FSU); 100-freestyle — 1. Johnson (DB) 49.00, 2. Hollingsworth (DB), 3. Crisler (FSU); 200-backstroke — Jim Hamilton (FSU) 2:03.1, 2. Ennson (FSU), 3. Sales (DB); 500-freestyle — Steve Albritton (FSU) 4:47.7, 2. Anderson (DB), 3. Shaffer (FSU); 200-breaststroke — 1. Kevin Connell (FSU) 2:12.0, 2. Sucher (FSU), 3. Baker (DB); 400-freestyle relay — 1. Daytona Beach, 2. FSU.