

Swimmers Seiple, Foster place in NCAA

INDIANAPOLIS — Senior Sam Seiple, the only Florida State swimmer participating, finished 17th in his event, the 100-yard butterfly, at the NCAA swimming meet at the Indiana University Natatorium Saturday. His time was 48.94 seconds.

Bruce Foster, a former Leon athlete now swimming at Arizona State, was named All-America for finishing 10th in the same event in 48.41 seconds.

The University of Florida won the three-day meet's final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay, to edge runner-up Southern Methodist University for the team title by 11 points. Texas finished third in team standings.
