

FSU NETTERS BOW TO MOCS

Southern Registers Convincing 8-1 Win

The Florida State University tennis squad dropped its second match of the season yesterday afternoon when they bowed to the smooth-stroking Southern college Mocs 8-1 before some 200 fans at the West Campus courts.

After Bryan Meharg, Moc ace who is undefeated this season, had put his mates out in front with a 6-3, 6-1 decision over FSU's Bob Lanigan, the Southern squad displayed its all-around superiority. They swept the remaining five singles matches and copped the opening pair of doubles events before dropping the final doubles match.

Final Doubles

In the final doubles event FSU's Bob Jarrett and Bill Albright registered the lone Seminole win with a 6-4, 6-3 decision over Southern's Sammy Gregg and Dennis Schaknow.
