

FSU NET SQUAD LOSE TO EMORY

Jim Costello Takes Lone State Victory

The Florida State University Seminole tennis squad had their six game winning streak snapped Friday afternoon on the Emory University courts in Atlanta by a 6-1 margin. It was the second meeting between the two teams, FSU having trimmed Emory in Tallahassee last Saturday afternoon 5-2. The Atlanta matches were played on clay courts.

Jim Costello, 6-foot, 3-inch Milanian, took the only match for State when he defeated Cowan of Emory in the number four match by scores of 6-3, 3-6, 7-5. Bob Lanigan and Larry Dickson both forced their matches into three sets before losing out.
