

Indian Netters Blank Chocs

With veterans Herb Quay and Bob Lanigan back in the lineup and newcomer Don Seiffert sparkling in his first appearance, the Florida State University tennis team scored a 7-0 victory over Mississippi College yesterday afternoon.

Blanked in their first two matches against Pensacola Navy and Davidson, the Indians scored their first win of the season at the expense of the Chocs in the Dixie conference event.

Quay, who has been ill at his home in St. Petersburg, beat Mississippi's Dudley Pearce 61-, 6-1 in the number one match. Lanigan, a Miami boy who was late registering this quarter, beat Ralph Marston 6-0, 6-1. Seiffert, an Illinois freshman making his first appearance in FSU competition, swept past Jerry McKenzie 6-0, 6-0.

Coach Don Loucks netters play Mercer Friday and Emory Saturday in a pair of non-conference matches.

The summaries: Quay (FSU) over Pearce (M) 6-1, 6-1; Larry Dickson (FSU) over J. T. Gilbert (M) 6-0, 6-0; Sammy Smith (FSU) over Bill Davis (M) 6-2, 6-0; Lanigan (FSU) over Marston (M) 6-0, 6-1; Seiffert (FSU) over McKenzie (M) 6-0, 6-0.

Bobby Jarrett and Shelby Creagh (FSU) over Pierce and Gilbert (M) 6-3, 6-2; Dan Boda and George Martin (FSU) over Davis and Marston (M) 6-1, 6-1.
