

FSU NETTERS DOWN EMORY

Play Indiana Team Friday

Florida State University's tennis team made it three wins in a row by defeating Emory University yesterday afternoon on the east campus courts.

FSU came within one match of making it a clean sweep over Emory. The netters won all six singles matches and two of the three doubles.

Coach Donald Loucks will pit his crew against the strong Indiana University net team next Friday on the east campus courts.

Results of yesterday's singles matches were:

Larry Dickson, FSU defeated John Haldi, Emory, 6-2, 6-2; Sam Smith, FSU over Stanley Kocan, 6-0, 6-2; Herb Quay, FSU over Gene Caverly, 6-0, 6-3; Don Selfert, FSU over Bill Yon, 6-0, 6-1; Bob Lanigan, FSU over Eston Mansfield, 6-4, 6-1; and Dick Bradley, FSU over Mario Soto, 6-3, 6-4.

In the doubles matches Haldi and Yon of Emory won over Dan Boda and George Martin, 6-2, 8-6. In the other two matches Shelby Creagh and Sid Stringer, FSU defeated Kocan and Caverly, 3-6, 8-6, 6-3 and Tom Bablone and Neal Broth, FSU won over Mansfield and Soto, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4.
