

Indian Netters Gain Even Split

The Florida State University tennis team bounced back from their 7-1 loss to Presbyterian College to slam the Stetson netters 7 to 2 here yesterday afternoon. Indian Don Seiffert was dropped by Stetson's Thad Wills for the Hatters only single win.

Seminole co-captain Herb Quay kept his singles record clean by winning his tenth straight without a loss this season.

The FSU netters captured all of the matches except Wills victory over Seiffert and a doubles won by Moore and Grigsby over George McMullen and George Martin.

The contest between Bob Lanigan and Bill Uthlaut was the only match to go to three games. Lanigan won the first game 6-3, lost the second 0-6 and came back to win the third 6-3.
