

Special to The Democrat

LAKE LAND — Florida State University's touring tennis team was scheduled to meet Florida Southern here today after bowing to the University of Miami Hurricanes 8-1 yesterday in the Magic City.

Today's match is a Dixie Conference event.

Larry Dickson, lanky Seminole court and cage veteran, saved the Seminoles from a whitewash yesterday when he defeated Bob Sierra, Miami, 8-6, 7-9 and 6-3 in a two hour and 45 minute marathon that featured the day's play.

The summary of other matches:

Neek Rohinette, Miami defeated Jim Berry, FSU, 6-1, 6-0; Don Kniser (M) defeated Dick Bradley (FSU) 6-3, 6-2; Frank Keister (M) defeated Jack Egan (FSU) 6-1, 6-0; Jerry Slobin (M) defeated Ned Cooper (FSU) 6-0, 6-2; Joe Wright (M) defeated Bob Larrigan (FSU) 6-0, 6-2.

Doubles — Schwartz and Slobin (M) defeated Berry and Cooper, 6-1, 6-3; Semple and McCurry (M) defeated Martin and Boda, 6-1, 6-4 and Foreno and Vincent (M) defeated Bradley and Egan, 6-3, 2-6 and 9-7.