

n The Florida State University
c tennis team stayed on the winning side of the ledger here yesterday afternoon by defeating Concordia Institute of St. Louis 5-0. The victory was Florida State's second in three starts this year.

2 The match was concluded by 1 rain shortly after the doubles had started. Florida State took all five of singles matches.

3 Jim Berry, who is fast moving 4 to the front as ace of the Florida
5 State squad, defeated Roland 6 Haas, top Concordia player, 6-1, 7 10-8. Berry is undefeated so far 8 this season.

9 The Florida State tennis squad
10 is scheduled to leave here early 11 tomorrow morning on a three-12 match road trip. The Seminoles 13 will take on Mercer University at 14 Macon tomorrow, University of 15 Georgia at Athens on Thursday
16 and Emory University at Atlanta 17 Friday.

18 Singles—Jim Berry, FSU, defeated Rol-19 land Haas 6-1, 10-8. Dave Kennedy, FSU, 20 defeated Paul Schumacher 6-3, 6-2. Tom 21 Cundy, FSU, defeated Garth Ludwig 6-0, 22 9-7. Joe Harris, FSU, defeated Norman 23 Schultz 6-3, 6-3. Dan Gord, FSU, de-24 feated Bob Hiebner 6-4, 6-1.

25 Doubles—Tom Bahione and Jack Egan, 26 FSU, were trailing Haas and Schumacher 27 4-6, 2-2 when match called, rain. George 28 Martin and Bob Oehry, FSU were lead-29 ing Schultz and Ludwig 7-6 when match 30 called, rain.