

Beaten by one Big Ten foe, Florida State University's tennis team tackles another midwestern outfit here tomorrow when they match strokes with Indiana on the college courts.

The Indiana match was originally scheduled today, but had to be set back one day.

The Seminoles' four-match winning streak was snapped yesterday in a long, drawn out duel with Michigan, 1951 runners-up in the Big Ten.

FSU ace Jim Berry suffered his first defeat, bowing to Michigan's Mike Schwartz 10-8, 4-6, 6-2.

Results of other matches: Tom Cundy (FSU) defeated B. B. Curham 6-0, 7-5; Charlie Mann (M) defeated Dave Kennedy 6-1, 6-0; Jay Webb (M) defeated Joe Harris 6-0, 9-7; Jim Stephen (M) defeated Jack Egan 11-9, 6-2; Jim Holt (M) defeated Dan Boda 7-5, 4-6, 6-2; Berry and Egan (FSU) defeated Schwartz and Paulas 10-12, 6-2, 6-3; Curham and Stephens (M) defeated Harris and Cundy 6-1, 3-6, 7-5; Holt and Webb (M) defeated Boda and Kennedy 6-2, 6-2.
