

Seminole Netters Top Spartans

Florida State's Seminoles defeated the University of Tampa, seven matches to none, in tennis at Davis Islands yesterday.

Two Tampans in the FSU lineup, Dave Kennedy and Shelby Creagh, won matches against the Spartans. Kennedy defeated Al Cazin, 6-1, 6-3 and Creagh defeated Ben Fielding, 6-0, 6-1.

Hal Schaus, FSU, defeated Tampa's player-coach Bill Dawson, 6-4, 6-3, in the number one match.

Closest match of the day occurred in doubles, FSU's Tom Cunby and Tom Morgan edging Dawson and Mark Ryan, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Florida State will continue a trip through the state the rest of the week, playing Miami, Rollins, Florida Southern and Stetson.

Tampa will play Howard College at Davis Islands March 27 in its next home match. The Spartans lost their net opener to St. Petersburg Junior College on Monday.
