

Florida State's well-balanced tennis team made a clean sweep of six singles bouts and took two of three doubles matches for an 8-1 decision over Georgia Tech's Engineers here yesterday.

It was the fifth win against two losses for Keith Pitchford's Seminoles.

Seven of yesterday's nine matches went three sets, somewhat of a rarity.

Hal Schaus (FSU) df. Mack McAllister (Tech), 6-2, 2-6, 6-4. Tom Cundy (FSU) df. Julian Wade (Tech), 6-0, 7-5. Shelby Cragg (FSU) df. Jack Heisel (Tech), 6-3, 6-1, 6-3. Dave Kennedy (FSU) df. Earle Mortell (Tech), 3-7, 6-3, 6-0. Don Wyly (FSU) df. Sam Van Leer (Tech), 6-3, 4-6, 6-3. Jack Egan (FSU) df. Lee Jones (Tech), 6-2, 5-7, 6-0. Wade-McAllister df. Joe Harris-Cundy, 6-3, 7-5, 2-6. Schaus-Egan df. Heisel-Mortell, 6-4, 6-3. Wyly-Tom Morgan df. Van Leer-Jones, 6-3, 1-6, 6-4.