

Florida State's tennis team dropped a 6-3 decision to well-balanced Pensacola Navy here yesterday in the first of two important weekend matches for FSU.

The Seminoles entertain Georgia Tech this afternoon at 2 in a match on the varsity courts.

In yesterday's action FSU managed to break even in the singles but Pensacola came back to sweep all three doubles events to win, going away.

In the feature singles match, FSU ace Hal Schaus edged Navy star Seth Peterson 6-2, 2-6, 6-3. It was the only individual clash to go three sets.

The loss dropped State's record to 3-2.
