

Florida State's tennis team demonstrated overwhelming power, sweeping every event to defeat Mercer, 9-0, here yesterday.

Three Seminoles swept their singles matches without losing a game and none of the matches went more than two sets.

Lex Hester, FSU's top player, had little difficulty beating Mercer's ace, Sam Daniel, 6-2 and 6-0.

It was Florida State's seventh victory against five defeats.

Lex Hester defeated Sam Daniel, 6-2, 6-0; Jim Berry defeated Jim Hinson, 6-0, 6-1; Frank Bryan defeated Bernie Garwood, 6-0, 6-0; Alex Sutor defeated George Thompson, 6-1, 6-2; Jackie Crew defeated Louis Norwell, 6-0, 6-0; Howard Levy defeated Maurice Maxwell, 6-0, 6-0; Bryan Maddock defeated Daniel-Hinson, 6-4, 6-1; Berry-Crew defeated Garwood-Thompson, 6-0, 6-2; Russ Rollinger-Sutor defeated Norwell-Maxwell, 6-1, 6-2.