

Special To The Democrat

ATLANTA, Ga. — Georgia Tech's smooth-working tennis team was favored to turn back Florida State when the teams met in a dual match here today.

Keith Pitchford's Seminoles, on their final trip of the season, found Georgia's Bulldogs too tough at Athens yesterday and bowed, 8-1. Howard Levy averted a shutout by winning his singles test against Georgia's Richard Courts.

The Bulldog triumph squared their two-match series with State this season and gave Georgia a 7-6 alltime edge.

The summary:

John Foster defeated Lex Hester, 4-3, 4-1; Lindsey Hopkins defeated Jim Berry, 7-5, 7-5; Alfred Thompson defeated Frank Bryan, 7-5, 6-0; Don Hartsfield defeated Jim Maddock, 6-0, 6-1; Dudley Baird defeated Jackie Crew, 6-4, 6-2; Howard Levy defeated Richard Courts, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Foster-Hopkins defeated Maddock-Bryan, 7-5, 4-2; Thompson-Allen defeated Berry-Crew, 6-4, 4-4; Baird-Courts defeated Hester-Russ Rollinger, 6-3, 6-2.