

Lettermen Jim Berry and Jack Crew stacked up three points between them to spark Florida State's tennis team to a 5-4 triumph over Georgia's Bulldogs here yesterday.

Berry and Crew each won their singles tests, then teamed to give John Powless' Seminoles the deciding point in doubles. Georgia's John Foster downed FSU's Lex Hester, 6-2, 6-2, in the feature match.

Florida State entertains powerful Miami on the Seminole varsity courts tomorrow at 1:30 p.m.
