TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 24--(Special)--Seven matches with Southeastern Conference teams and four with Big Ten schools highlight Florida State University's 1959 tennis schedule.

Coach John Powless, who makes his debut with the Seminoles this spring, said Florida State will play an 18-match schedule. Eleven of the 18 matches are set for Tallahassee.

The independent Seminoles open their season against Louisiana State at Baton Rouge March 14. Other SEC opponents are Georgia, Georgia Tech, and Florida.

Minnesota, Michigan State, and Indiana of the Big Ten Conference will appear in Tallahassee.

Senior Lex Hester of Neptune Beach heads a list of seven returning lettermen. Other returnees are Jim Berry, Bradenton; Frank Bryan, Sumter, S. C.; Jack Crew, Bainbridge, Ga.; Howard Levy, Miami Beach; Fred Serret, Little Rock, Ark., and Alex Sutor, Tallahassee. Serret, a 1956 standout, is back after a tour in the service.

Rebel Bellamy, Bakersfield, Calif., sophomore up from the freshman team, will add depth along with newcomers Bill Anderson and Bill McClain.
